

BIG SALES.

Aut inveniam viam, aut faciam.

VOL. VIII. NO. 8.

LOUISA LAWRENCE COUNTY, KENTUCKY, OCTOBER 21, 1892.

M. F. CONLEY, Publisher.

Just Received.

We have just about completed an enormous stock of such Choice Winter Goods but we CAN'T HOLD THEM!

Such goods and prices threaten to cause a

CLEARANCE SALE

without our intending it. These goods sell themselves on sight and a slight examination furnishes so many reasons for buying that it seems superfluous and idle to invite purchase.

When you come in take time to look through our enormous new stock of

DRY GOODS,

NOTIONS, HATS,

SHOES, BOOTS.

AND GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

HARDERS & STEWARTS,
LOUISA, KENTUCKY.

CURRENT TOPICS.

YALE college has about thirty female students.

JAPANESE immigration is stated to be increasing.

The influenza bacillus is the smallest yet discovered.

At least of rain means 100 tons of water on every acre.

One church in Chicago is furnished with regular opera chairs.

A full grown elephant is capable of carrying a load of two tons.

The new gymnasium at Yale is said to be the finest in the world.

There are more than 500 silk factories in operation in this country.

PALESTINE is about one-fourth as large as the state of New York.

Old gold is to be the color of the Chicago university million dollar building.

It is calculated that a signal passes through the Atlantic cable in 37-100 of a second.

The smallest church in New York is the People's in Harlem, a room over a drug store.

The emperor of Germany has over 25 different suits of clothes and 500 pairs of trousers.

The brass ball on the court-house at Independence, Mo., is the habitation of a swarm of bees.

The credit for the first world's fair is usually awarded to Albert, the prince of Geneva, Switzerland.

A woman named (Mc) man has a black and white mixed with gold hair.

A woman named (Mc) man says that forty of her couplers were filled in.

A woman named (Mc) man is a civil engineer; he has built houses, but constructs the couplers and drains to keep them dry.

A woman named (Mc) man has decided that Thomas Edison has the only patent on an electric light in this country.

A woman named (Mc) man says that while married women on an average live two years longer than single women.

The shucks on the corn this year are unusually thick and heavy, which the farmers say indicates a hard and cold winter.

Ten thousand dollars have been offered for the first coin of the world's fair half dollar series. The fair officials expect still higher bids.

Six pepperoni dilleries are running day and night at Decatur, Mich., and it is estimated that they will be, at a low estimate, 8,000 pounds.

The new Cunard steamship Campana, recently launched, is 620 feet long. This is sixty feet less than the length of the famous Great Eastern.

A new variety of wheat, the grains of which are almost twice as large as ordinary kernels, has been grown near Moscow, Wash.

The total presidential vote in 1884 was 10,938,661, and in 1888 was 13,883,888. It is estimated that this year the vote will go as high as 14,000,000.

An eight-year-old Spokane (Wash.) boy has been sent to the reform school because "he had become an inventor."

Seven thousand dollars have been offered for the first coin of the world's fair half dollar series. The fair officials expect still higher bids.

Six pepperoni dilleries are running day and night at Decatur, Mich., and it is estimated that they will be, at a low estimate, 8,000 pounds.

The new Cunard steamship Campana, recently launched, is 620 feet long. This is sixty feet less than the length of the famous Great Eastern.

A new variety of wheat, the grains of which are almost twice as large as ordinary kernels, has been grown near Moscow, Wash.

The total presidential vote in 1884 was 10,938,661, and in 1888 was 13,883,888. It is estimated that this year the vote will go as high as 14,000,000.

An eight-year-old Spokane (Wash.) boy has been sent to the reform school because "he had become an inventor."

Seven thousand dollars have been offered for the first coin of the world's fair half dollar series. The fair officials expect still higher bids.

Six pepperoni dilleries are running day and night at Decatur, Mich., and it is estimated that they will be, at a low estimate, 8,000 pounds.

The new Cunard steamship Campana, recently launched, is 620 feet long. This is sixty feet less than the length of the famous Great Eastern.

A new variety of wheat, the grains of which are almost twice as large as ordinary kernels, has been grown near Moscow, Wash.

The total presidential vote in 1884 was 10,938,661, and in 1888 was 13,883,888. It is estimated that this year the vote will go as high as 14,000,000.

An eight-year-old Spokane (Wash.) boy has been sent to the reform school because "he had become an inventor."

Seven thousand dollars have been offered for the first coin of the world's fair half dollar series. The fair officials expect still higher bids.

Six pepperoni dilleries are running day and night at Decatur, Mich., and it is estimated that they will be, at a low estimate, 8,000 pounds.

The new Cunard steamship Campana, recently launched, is 620 feet long. This is sixty feet less than the length of the famous Great Eastern.

A new variety of wheat, the grains of which are almost twice as large as ordinary kernels, has been grown near Moscow, Wash.

The total presidential vote in 1884 was 10,938,661, and in 1888 was 13,883,888. It is estimated that this year the vote will go as high as 14,000,000.

An eight-year-old Spokane (Wash.) boy has been sent to the reform school because "he had become an inventor."

Seven thousand dollars have been offered for the first coin of the world's fair half dollar series. The fair officials expect still higher bids.

Six pepperoni dilleries are running day and night at Decatur, Mich., and it is estimated that they will be, at a low estimate, 8,000 pounds.

The new Cunard steamship Campana, recently launched, is 620 feet long. This is sixty feet less than the length of the famous Great Eastern.

A new variety of wheat, the grains of which are almost twice as large as ordinary kernels, has been grown near Moscow, Wash.

The total presidential vote in 1884 was 10,938,661, and in 1888 was 13,883,888. It is estimated that this year the vote will go as high as 14,000,000.

An eight-year-old Spokane (Wash.) boy has been sent to the reform school because "he had become an inventor."

NEWS ITEMS.

A drought in South Dakota has been broken by heavy rains.

Columbus celebrations were held in all the principal cities and large towns throughout Canada.

Judge John Wickham, a prominent member of the St. Louis bar, is dead, aged 67, of paralysis.

The American Telephone and Telegraph Co. will formally open their long distance line from New York to Chicago Thursday afternoon.

Prince Pedro of Coburg, Dom Pedro's grandson, who was recently placed in the Doehling insane asylum, is constantly raving violently.

Thursday morning fire destroyed a large part of the business portion of Hill City, S. D. Ed. Cunningham, an old Black Hills miner was burned to death.

The West Virginia university has conferred the degree of LL. D. upon Rev. Stephen A. Hunter, minister for thirteen years, of the Presbyterian board, in China.

The loss by fire at Salix, Ia., will amount to $125,000, with an insurance of $37,000. Only two elevators, a church and half a dozen residences escaped destruction.

Linda Simpson, editor of the Gazette, published at Point Pleasant, W. Va., has taken the stump for the republicans. Her father is a democrat and she has challenged him for a debate.

Peter Maher, the Irish champion, and Joe Goddard, the barrier champion, were matched Friday night to fight at the Coney Island Athletic club for a purse of $7,500 on December 8.

A barn containing eight acres of tobacco, belonging to E. L. Sellers, of Henderson, Ky., burned. This is the second barn Mr. Sellers has had burned, and finishes his entire crop.

Kingsburg, Cal., Friday morning suffered a destructive conflagration. The loss is estimated at $50,000. Very little insurance. All the business buildings in the town were destroyed.

Perth, Ont., is engaged in making a mammoth cheese for the Chicago fair. It will be seven feet high and nine feet in diameter, and will require for its making the milk of six hundred cows for three days.

Mr. R. E. Sunny, of the Edison General Electric Co., says there is no truth in the report that Mr. Edison is about to associate himself with Messrs. Washburn and Pillsbury in the formation of another company.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Daily News says that, owing to the threatening attitude of Russia, Austria and Germany, Prince Ferdinand, of Bulgaria, has decided to give up his plan to visit Constantinople.

At New Haven, Ct., two boys named Martin Leahy and Thos. Ledwith, were arrested for setting fire to Haseom's shipyard, recently. The police think that these two, with seven other boys, are responsible for several fires.

The man Francis, who caused the explosion in the restaurant of M. Verry, in Paris, several months ago, by which the proprietor and a waiter were fatally injured, was arrested in East London, Eng., after a desperate struggle.

It has been discovered that wheat has invaded the wheat fields of farmers in various portions of Hancock county, Ill., and as a result thousands of bushels of wheat have been thrown upon the market by a single person.

The American Institute of Mining Engineers, which has 3,000 members in all parts of the world, opened its session in Reading, Pa., Wednesday. Two hundred members had already arrived, and many more are expected.

Lodisire Bucher, the distinguished scholar, statesman and diplomat, is dead, at Berlin. Prince Bismarck has telegraphed to the Hamburg Nachrichten: "I have lost my most faithful friend. His family is desolate."

Japanese elements are being made for the establishment of a colony of 1,000 Japanese in the state of Simala, Mexico. This movement is the result of an extended investigation made by the commission sent there by the Japanese government several months ago.

After "graduating" from the Keely so-called "cure" for the appetite for drink, Robert Gran, the theatrical manager, brother to Maurice Gran, returned to New York recently. But the "cure" was a failure, and he is now in Bellevue hospital, being treated for a prolonged debauch.

E. D. Fulford, the crack eastern trap shot, has challenged Jim Elliott, who holds the American field cup, to shoot five fives for the championship of the world. Elliott will accept the challenge. The matches will probably take place at Indianapolis, Harrisburg, Kansas City, Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Cleveland.

Another case of nutting exactly similar to that which occurred five days ago at Windsor has occurred at Portsmouth, Eng. The thirteenth company has been compelled to attend a number of extra drills, which the men claim were entirely unnecessary. The harness belonging to the driver of the company had been so badly cut that they were worthless.

The national officers of the Union Veterans Legion of America were elected at Thursday's session of the sixth annual encampment, as follows: National commander, Wm. H. Tucker, Indiana; apollis: senior vice commander, James Beggs, Cincinnati; junior vice commander, H. K. Sloan, Indiana; Pa. Saragon general, Dr. Winfield Robinson, Louisville, Mo.; chaplain-in-chief, John A. Danks, Pittsburgh.

Fred Burgess, of Elk Garden, W. Va., a miner, clambered after some coons in a tree, and when 30 feet up a limb broke and he fell, receiving some injuries. A few days later his clothes were stripped off by catching in the turning rod of a thrashing machine.

Martin Peterson, by his next best friend, Peter Johnson, asks judgment in a suit taken out at Goshen, Ind., Thursday against the Lake Shore Railroad Co., for $30,000, for the loss of both arms. He alleges that he was pushed off a moving train, and, falling between the cars, had both arms mangled so badly that amputation was necessary.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence, one of the picket passing entirely through the calf of one leg. One ear was nearly torn off, and he suffered considerable concussion of the brain.

The four companies of militia, members of the Sixteenth regiment, who have been at Homestead since the riots occurred, left for their homes Thursday morning. The sheriff has increased his force of deputies, and no serious trouble is expected to occur. The troops can be seen at the depot.

At Columbus (O.) Edward Herman, a painter, fell from a scaffold at the Holy Cross parsonage. He struck on an iron fence